AGENDA

Regional Optimization of Electronic Health Information Exchange

October 29, 2018
1:00-5:00 p.m.
Trinity Health Center East | Board Room

Objectives:

- Create common understanding of NDHIN functionality by providing education on current and future NDHIN capabilities
- Identify regional partners' health information needs
- Determine partners' priority health information needs
- Develop regional plan to optimize the exchange of electronic health information

1:00 p.m.   Welcome – Sally May, RN, BSN, Senior Quality Improvement Specialist, QHA

What is the one HIE question you want answered today?

1:15 p.m.   NDHIN Clinical Portal Demonstration & Expansion Project – Tina Gagner, BSN, RN, NDHIN Clinical Application Analyst; Sheldon Wolf, NDHIN Technology Director

2:45 p.m.   NDHIN Use Cases – Polly Mullins-Bentley, RN, RHIT, Senior Consultant, Health Tech Solution

Linda Larson	Erin Youngblood	Richelle Johnson	Jeffrey Sather, MD
Epidemiologist	Clinic Manager	Minot Team Lead	Emergency Medicine
ND DOH	CHI St. Alexius	Health-Minot	Trinity Health

3:15 p.m.   Break

3:30 p.m.   Prioritizing Regional Health Information Exchange Needs – Sally May
What is your biggest pain point in obtaining patient data from sources outside of your healthcare facility? Environmental Scan Results

4:30 p.m.   Next Steps – Sheldon Wolf

4:55 p.m.   Wrap-up/Evaluation – Sally May

My key "take away" from today is . . .